

Tell Me about Yourself Speech

Your Name Here
 R110 Section No: 123SpeakersLabTeam
 Date: April 28th, 2020
 Instructor Name Here

Title of Speech: Applying for Position as an Interpreter at Riley

Thesis Statement: I am qualified for this position because of my experience in interpreting, the practice I've had using these skills and the way I know I can apply them to this position.

LEFT COLUMN
label speech functions

MIDDLE COLUMN
content of speech
use complete sentences

RIGHT COLUMN
Label physical behaviors

Attention TIA Credibility Thesis	INTRODUCTION I. Hello! My name is Elizabeth Conrad. II. I've read a lot about Riley, and I enjoyed corresponding with you over email. It's a pleasure to finally meet you. III. I'm here to interview for the position of Spanish interpreter at Riley Hospital for Children. IV. I am qualified for this position because of my experience with Spanish-speaking individuals and interpreting, the way I can apply those skills to this job, and the alignment of my values to Riley's.	Extend hand to shake Cheery and professional tone
Main Point Sub-Point Sub-Sub-Point	BODY I. Through my past job experiences, I have had the opportunity to hone my interpreting skills through an understanding of culture and synchronous interpreting.	Speak slowly

Sub-Sub-Point	A. My sophomore year of college, I worked as an intern at a Spanish radio station, gaining valuable Spanish and cultural skills.	BE CONFIDENT!
Sub-Point	1. Not only did this internship add to my ever-expanding knowledge of Spanish, but it gave me great insights into many of the cultural aspects of Spanish-speaking individuals.
Sub-Sub-Point	2. I learned about the kinds of Spanish slang used on-air, as well as many of the questions and concerns the Spanish-speaking audience in my area had for show hosts.
Sub-Sub-Point	3. For example, during a talk show I gathered an understanding of the questions lower-income Spanish-speaking families have regarding healthcare and health insurance.
	B. I also recently volunteered as a translator for a program called Faculty as Family, a program created by my college to allow Spanish-speaking parents of students with disabilities to engage with teaching professionals in a safe environment.
Transition	1. As the families and teachers were talking, I learned the value of relaying information very concisely and quickly between those talking.
Main Point	2. It was extremely helpful to practice this skill in a forgiving environment but also one where accuracy was important to understanding important things about parents and children and teachers and students.
Sub-Point	II. Understanding culture and being able to communicate well with parents and children synchronously will be crucial in a hospital setting.	Very assured.
	A. I will be able to understand cultural slang and those who live in this area because of the experience I had in my internship	Speak slowly.

Sub-Point	position. I also know many of the questions and concerns people in this area have and can provide valuable insights for accessibility for Spanish-speaking individuals in our hospital. B. Because of volunteering at Faculty as Family, I also have experience speaking with parents and children, and I understand the value of accuracy and empathy when it comes to interpreting between them and professionals.
Transition	Not only will these skills work well for this position, but also for this department.
Main Point	III. Riley Hospital prides itself on having great communication between parents and children, and because of my skills I would fit perfectly into that environment.
Sub-Point	A. I believe it's extremely important for professionals and families to be on the same page, and I have done and will do everything in my power to maintain that ethical stance wherever I work. I would be proud to work at a place such as Riley because of this alignment in values.	Move back to center
Sub-Point	B. I also believe in the importance of providing the most professional and efficient care for patients, and that starts with important communication that both parties can understand.	Gesture outward.
Review of Main Points	CONCLUSION I. Because of my experience with culture, synchronous interpreting and my ethical values that align with this hospital, I believe I would be a perfect fit for this position.	Conclusive tone.
Clincher/tag/exit line or Final Appeal	II. Thank you for your time, and I look forward to hearing from you.	Extend hand.

Statement of Academic Honesty: I have read and understand the sections in the Student Bulletin and/or course syllabus relating to IUPUI's Honesty/Cheating Policy. I certify that I have not cheated or plagiarized in the process of completing this assignment. I also verify that this assignment is unique to this class and that I have not used work from previous courses. If it is found that cheating and/or plagiarism did take place in the writing of this outline, I understand the possible consequences of the act, which could include expulsion from IUPUI

